OCTELA Resources

Fall Institute

A one-day conference that focuses on a specific literacy issue. Presenters are chosen for their expertise in the area. Participants deepen their understanding of the issue and bring back strategies to use in the classroom. One hour of graduate credit available.

Spring Conference

A two-day conference featuring multiple nationally-recognized authors, illustrators and educators and a wide variety of breakout sessions presented by educators for educators of all levels. Participants expand their knowledge, skills and strategies in self-selected areas of interest and have the opportunity to network with their colleagues from throughout the state. Two hours of graduate credit available.
